

Refund and Cancellation Policy:

If you need to cancel your flight ticket, you may contact our customer service team. The amount of refund you receive depends on the type of ticket you purchased and the time of cancellation. For example, if you purchased a non-refundable ticket, you may be eligible for a partial refund if you cancel within a certain time frame before the scheduled departure. If you purchased a refundable ticket, you may be eligible for a full refund, minus any applicable cancellation fees.

Please note that some tickets may not be eligible for cancellation or refund, and any fees charged by the airline are non-refundable. Additionally, any changes made to your ticket may result in additional fees or charges. You must have been required to communicate with the agent at the time of reservation once the booking is confirmed we have no right in making changes to the schedule.

Refund Policy:

If your flight has been cancelled by the airline, you may be eligible for a refund. The amount of refund you receive depends on the airline's policy, and our customer service team can assist you with the process of obtaining a refund.

Please note that some airlines may offer alternative travel arrangements or vouchers instead of a refund. If this is the case, our customer service team can assist you with rebooking your flight or using the voucher.

In some cases, flight cancellations or delays may be caused by circumstances beyond the airline's control, such as weather or natural disasters. In these cases, the airline may not be able to offer a refund or compensation.

Our services fees associated with the original travel reservation or booking are not refundable. Please note that we are dependent on the suppliers for receiving the requested refunds. Once the refund has been approved by the supplier it may take additional time for this to appear on your credit card statement. Generally, all suppliers will charge a penalty for refund. This entire process may take 15-30 days from receipt of your request to receiving credit on your statement.

All refund fees are charged on per ticket per person basis. These fees will only be assessed if a refund has been authorized by the supplier or a waiver has been received and when the airline/supplier rules permit such refunds. If such refund is not processed by the supplier, we will refund you our fees that may have been charged to you for such refund processing, but not our previously charged service fees for the original travel reservation or booking.
